Dear Mrs. McGowan:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I would like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 17 July G/AT concerning the circulation of subversive literature in the United States.

This is a subject which does not fall within the jurisdiction of the Central Intelligence Agency as the National Security Act of 1947, which provided for the establishment of the Agency, provided that it shall have no police, subpoena, law enforcement power, or internal security functions. However, your patriotic interest in writing to us as you did is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Mr. Allen Dulles,

What does the central Intelligence agency intend to do about the filthy and subversive literature that continues to be circulated around the country? Don't say that is for the Postmaster General to do - because someone always manages to tie his hands - Some evidently is in the Supreme Court - Now I want to know what you're going to do about it?

Sometime ago an admiral said quote (The communists will nibble up this country, they won't need to attack us) unquote - evidently he was thinking - the psychological warfare and the subversive literature that continues to be sold throughout this country.

Our public schools have been terribly corroded in their teaching - One example (my son's civics teacher said this when you call God I don't get it what do you mean by that?) Also when they were studying our Constitution, I

We don't assign written work or homework on that because that has to be interpreted in the classroom - I get mighty sick of excessive answers from some public officials, they were elected to be servants of the people - now they act like they plan on being our masters.

Doesn't say it's for security reasons that you can't answer these questions, please, because I'm afraid our group won't take it sitting down.

Certainly there are some undesirables in the Pentagon and they are being shielded day after day.

I think you can answer these questions and hoping to hear from you soon - I wish you best of everything and know that your work load is tremendous -

I thank you so much
